

Parker's Wine Advocate raves about Domaine J-P Baron's "...brash but persistently juicy..."
2008 Touraine Sauvignon Vieilles Vignes.
Reviewed by David Schildknecht.

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate • 8-31-09 • Issue 184 • page 81

DOMAINE BARON	2008	TOURAINE SAUVIGNON VIEILLES VIGNES	($12.00)	WHITE	87
Outrageously pungent in its aromas of passion fruit, sage flower, grapefruit zest, and caraway, the Baron		2008 Touraine Sauvignon Vieilles Vignes	Those favoring a riper, gentler, subtler expression of Sauvignon ought not to apply here, and fans should plan to relish this brash but persistently juicy wine over the next 6-9 months.
is an unrepentant representative of its grape variety, with salty, faintly bitter,					