

Wine Spectator awards a 90 point score to Jean-Claude Belland's 2007 Corton-Charlemagne

Wine Spectator • June 30, 2009 • page 92

90 Jean-Claude Belland Corton-Charlemagne 2007 $120 Austere, with bracing acidity and a tight profile, this is laced with lemon and mineral flavors accented by oak spice. There's a lovely texture, with a long, spice-tinged aftertaste. Best from 2012 through 2024. 20 cases imported.—B.S.