

Wine Spectator Insider
loves Domaine Courbis' "gorgeous"
St.-Joseph Les Royes 2009

August 24, 2011 online issue

DOMAINE COURBIS

St.-Joseph Les Royes 2009

93 points | $45 | 1,320 cases made | Red

Dark, but very pure, with a great racy feel to the graphite, mulled plum, blackberry confiture and black tea notes. The long, supple finish just lets the fruit smolder. Gorgeously. Drink now through 2016. —J.M.

Wine Spectator Insider
Praise for Domaine Courbis' "big and rich"
Cornas Champelrose 2009

August 24, 2011 online issue

DOMAINE COURBIS

Cornas Champelrose 2009

92 points | $50 | 2,180 cases made | Red

Big and rich, but with a throwback feel to the gutsy bramble, tobacco and mulled plum flavors, all pushed by additional dark olive and roasted fig notes. Good cut on the finish offsets the richness nicely. Best from 2012 through 2019. —J.M.