

Wine Spectator lauds Jean-Maurice Raffault's
Chinon Clos des Capucins 2003,
noting its "...amplitude of the vintage...and solid finish"

June 30, 2006 Issue
Pages 132-133

FRANCE
Loire / Red & Rosé

91 Jean-Maurice Raffault Chinon Clos des Capucins 2003 $25 Shows the amplitude of the vintage, with dark plum, berry and tobacco flavors backed by toast and spice notes. Solid finish sports briar and tobacco flavors with another blast of fruit. Drink now through 2010. 80 cases imported.—J.M.