

Wine Spectator

Spring 2011

Rainer Wess Grüner Veltliner Kremstal Pfaffenberg Reserve 2009

Score: 89 • Release Price: $35 • Country: Austria • Region: Niederösterreich

March 31, 2011

Zesty, delivering bright ruby grapefruit and Meyer lemon flavors that are ripe and well-spiced. This finishes with notes of baked pineapple and glazed apricot. Drink now through 2014. 25 cases imported.

Web Review - 2011

88 Rainer Wess Grüner Veltliner Wachau Loibenberg 2009

$35 Plush, with lots of creamy notes to the baked peach, honeydew melon and glazed apricot flavors. The long finish features spice and white chocolate. Drink now through 2015. 25 cases imported. —KM

Web Review - 2011

90 Rainer Wess Grüner Veltliner Wachau Terrassen 2009

$24 Powerful and very smoky, with dense flavors of lentil, ripe blood orange, gooseberry and cream. Finishes with plenty of tropical fruit and spice flavors. Drink now through 2106. 50 cases imported. —KM

Web Review - 2011

91 Rainer Wess Riesling Kremstal Pfaffenberg Reserve 2009

$35 Elegant, minerally and refined, with a peach aroma and flavors to match, as well as notes of ripe apple and white raspberry. The stony finish features dashes of citrus zest. Drink now through 2020. 25 cases imported. —KM

Web Review - 2011

88 Rainer Wess Riesling Wachau Terrassen 2009

$24 Lots of mineral, white pepper and stone flavors grace this sleek white. Very fresh and tangy on the finish, with pippin apple and citrus notes. Drink now through 2017. 50 cases imported. —KM

Web Review – 2011

90 Rainer Wess Riesling Wachau Loibenberg 2009

$35 Crisp, featuring undercurrents of savory herb to the green apple and citrus flavors, with a rich accent of candied ginger and citrus. Bright and juicy on the finish. Drink now through 2020. 25 cases imported. —KM